

EARL ST. CLAIR RELEASES DEBUT EP, MY NAME IS EARL,
ON CIRCA 13 / DEF JAM RECORDINGS

NATIONAL TELEVISION DEBUT TONIGHT ON *THE LATE LATE SHOW WITH JAMES CORDEN!

“Soul-Revivalist” – NEW YORK TIMES

“Earl St. Clair's throwback approach to soul is refreshing” – NOISEY

“Brace yourself for legend-in-the-making, Cleveland-bred blues-n-soul singer Earl St. Clair” – AFROPUNK

(March 2, 2017 – New York, NY) Today, Circa 13/Def Jam Recordings artist Earl St. Clair introduces himself to the world on his debut EP, MY NAME IS EARL. The 7-track EP will feature 6 brand-new songs as well as Earl's previously released tune “Feeling Alive.”

Tonight, to celebrate the release of his EP, Earl St. Clair will make his late night debut on The Late Late Show with James Corden performing a new track off the EP called

“Ain’t Got It Like That.” The performance follows Earl’s striking 2016 showing on CBS’ The Late Show with Stephen Colbert as a featured guest on Bibi Bourelly’s track “Perfect” and on “NCIS: New Orleans” for his song “Feeling Alive.”

With a massive talent that’s refreshingly modern yet hearkens back to soul music’s greats, Earl St. Clair, seen earlier this month at BET Music’s Grammy® Showcase in Los Angeles, has garnered early fans and collaborators including Rick Ross, Avicii, Machine Gun Kelly, and Bibi Bourelly. Laced with grit and sounding ripped from the depths of his soul, Earl’s voice still manages to skip lightly over hooks that lodge in your head for days.
