EXPERIENCE LIKE A WOMAN BY DIALING 201-RED-HEAD

"Like A Woman is an exploration of my own femininity and sexuality. I want my audience to have a similar experience of their own while listening. My goal is not to make a statement, but make space for exploration without shame or guilt. I don't speak for all women. I speak for Kacy Hill."

(June 30, 2017 – New York, NY) G.O.O.D. Music/Def Jam Recordings artist Kacy Hill's highly-anticipated debut album Like A Woman, executive produced by Kanye West, is available everywhere now.

Setting the scene for today's release of Like A Woman are the album's first two single picks:

- "LIKE A WOMAN," the album title track produced by DJ Mustard and DJDS, a passionate, slow-burner that builds gently before opening up to give Hill's voice room to breathe (view the video); and
- "HARD TO LOVE," produced by Stuart Price, a sweet song about being let down, as Hill's voice is front and center, tender and pleading. (Watch the video here)

Fans and listeners can dial 201-red-head for the Like A Woman interactive experience.

Like A Woman is the long-awaited follow-up to Kacy's 2015 debut EP, BLOO, containing the viral hit "Arm's Length" along with "Foreign Fields," which broke the Top 5 on Spotify's Global Viral Top 50 chart.

Arizona native Kacy Hill first fell in love with music as a member of the Vanessa Beecroft-curated performance troupe for Kanye West's Yeezus tour. Kanye was quick to sign her to his G.O.O.D. Music/Def Jam imprint, and offer his mentorship and advice. At his suggestion, Kacy made serious changes in her sound and her story as an artist: focusing on her voice, finding her own melody, and writing from the parts of her heart that she had previously kept close. The results can be experienced on Like A Woman, whose songs deal with intimacy, longing, heartbreak, and searching.

Dubbed a "mesmerizing debut album" by The Telegraph, "Like A Woman is a tender, ethereal work of love, desire, loss and healing. It resonates with a powerfully feminine spirit. And not a guest rapper in earshot", Kacy has steadily built her buzz over the past two years – Top 10 on the Dazed & Confused Readers' 100 List, a tour in support of Jack Garratt, features on debut albums by Travis Scott and Cashmere Cat, a collaborator on Kid Cudi's album, the cover of V magazine's music issue, and several fashion spreads in Vogue. Last month alone, Kacy could be found in Elle's 'Women In Music' issue, a huge spread in Flaunt, and on the cover of Galore. Upcoming press includes V Magazine's Music Issue, Teen Vogue's Young Icons, and more.

As Kacy Hill's story continues to unfold, and her already-impressive buzz continues to grow, LIKE A WOMAN marks the breakthrough of one of 2017's most exciting artists.
